

About Us:

DBS are proud to be one of the most technically advanced Mechanical and Electrical Design, Build and Maintenance contractors in the UK. Operating from our Head Office in Newark, with a further office in Birmingham, we have worked on many high profile projects including Warner Brothers Studios, including the Harry Potter Tour, The National Football Academy and the New Center Parcs complex in Woburn.

About the role:

We currently have a vacancy for a Commercial Gas Engineer based at our Head Office location.

The successful candidate will be required to work alone and be able to problem solve/ fault find, as well as being adaptable and flexible to suit out Maintenance Department and Small Works workload and client expectations. The successful candidate must be fully conversant with latest IGEM rules and legislations.

Requirements:

- Commercial and domestic gas qualifications
- Commercial gas testing and purging experience essential
- Plumbing qualifications and commercial with commercial plumbing experience
- Water regulations awareness
- Unvented water system qualifications
- LPG and Oil fuel experience preferred but not essential
- CSCSs and CRB preferred but not essential

What we offer:

- Full training and upkeep of qualifications
- Company van
- Mobile phone and tablet
- Full PPE and plant provided
- 23 days' annual leave
- Pay in accordance with the BESA union agreement with Gas responsibility credits
- Out of Hours standby allowance
- 37.5 hours basic week, plus regular overtime and travel allowance
- Welplan sickness cover
- Contributory Pension Scheme